

You are the main contact for your organization in Exostar and receive all supplier communications. Please ensure communications are shared with the applicable members of your organization. If you are no longer the correct person, use these instructions to update your Exostar TPM profile.

Lockheed Martin Corporation
6801 Rockledge Drive Bethesda, MD 20817

Janet Duffey
Corporate Supply Chain Council Chair
Vice President, Lockheed Martin Aeronautics Global Supply Chain

March 31, 2020

TO: Lockheed Martin U.S. Small Business Suppliers

SUBJECT: U.S. Small Business Resources

We are committed to keeping our small business community strong in these unprecedented times. As a Lockheed Martin small business supplier, we want to make sure you're aware of some of the key resources available to you.

Resources

- The U.S. Small Business Administration is offering designated states and territories low-interest federal disaster loans for working capital to small businesses suffering substantial economic injury as a result of the Coronavirus (COVID-19). You can access the SBA COVID-19 webpage to learn more and how to apply for a loan. Be sure to also check with your government for state-specific loan and grant programs available.
- The state health department provides COVID-19 state-specific information.

News

- U.S. Chamber of Commerce – How small businesses will benefit from the Coronavirus Aid Relief & Economic Security Cares Act.

The Lockheed Martin supplier COVID-19 webpage provides you with additional resources and will continue to be updated as new resources are identified. Please refer to this site often for supplier communications and external news and resources relevant to our industry.

If you have questions or identify issues that could cause potential delays in deliveries, transportation or availability of materials, or other impacts, please contact your Lockheed Martin procurement representative.

Together, we will find strength during these challenging times.