

You are the main contact for your organization in Exostar and receive all supplier communications. Please ensure communications are shared with the applicable members of your organization. If you are no longer the correct person, use these instructions to update your Exostar TPM profile.

Lockheed Martin Corporation
6801 Rockledge Drive Bethesda, MD 20817

Janet Duffey
Corporate Supply Chain Council Chair
Vice President, Lockheed Martin Aeronautics Global Supply Chain

March 25, 2020

TO: Lockheed Martin Non-US Suppliers with US Government Contracts

SUBJECT: Supporting Defense & Homeland Security Prime Contracts

Lockheed Martin and its suppliers play an important role in supporting the critical missions of our customers in the United States government. The contracts awarded by Lockheed Martin, to your company, in support of defense and homeland security prime contracts awarded to Lockheed Martin by the United States government are continuing in effect.

We recommend that you coordinate with your local authorities and verify whether any business-closure, transportation restrictions, shelter-in-place, or other restrictions affect your abilities to perform your contracts in accordance with the existing delivery schedule and other terms and conditions. Inform your Lockheed Martin procurement representative of any such impacts.

If a government issued order is the cause of an impact, please provide a copy of the order or other pertinent details to your Lockheed Martin procurement representative as soon as feasible.

Nothing in this message waives, modifies or changes any of the terms and conditions of any contracts between Lockheed Martin and your company.

For additional communications and resources, please visit our supplier COVID-19 webpage frequently.